

ERADICATE HATE GLOBAL SUMMIT 2024SM

AGENDA

[Panels and Speakers Subject To Change]

Monday, October 21, 2024

9:00 AM – 9:15 AM (ET)

Welcome Remarks and Multifaith Invocation

- Mark Nordenberg, Co-Chair, Board, Eradicate Hate Global Summit
- Laura Ellsworth, Co-Chair, Board, Eradicate Hate Global Summit
- Brette Steele, President, Eradicate Hate Global Summit
- Venerable Dr. Barry Kerzin, Founder & President, Altruism in Medicine Institute, Founder & Chairman, Human Values Institute
- Rabbi Hindy Finman, Director of the Center for Loving Kindness, Jewish Community Center of Greater Pittsburgh (JCCPGH)
- Rev. Liddy Barlow, Executive Minister Christian Associates of Southwest Pennsylvania

9:15 AM – 9:50 AM (ET)

State of Hate

This opening panel explores the latest trends in hate-fueled violence. The discussion will address everything from emerging threats to changing tactics across the spectrum of all forms of targeted and hate-based violence.

- Sasha Havlicek, Founder and CEO, Institute for Strategic Dialogue (ISD)
- George Selim, Senior Vice President for National Affairs, Anti-Defamation League (ADL)
- Mark Wallace, CEO, Counter Extremism Project

9:50 AM – 10:50 AM (ET)

The Summit Responds

Now more than ever, the world needs the vital work of the Eradicate Hate Global Summit community. This series of five-minute talks will highlight the concrete deliverables and tools that Eradicate Hate and our Working Groups have produced since our Global Summit in 2023.

Raising Awareness: UP End Hate – Rachel Hunkler; SCREEN Hate – Rachel Hunkler; Youth Red Flags – Jillian Hunchak

Education: I2P – Rachel Hunkler; K-12 – Nick Haberman and Bob Scherrer; Higher Education – Ken Stern and Kristine Hoover

Capacity Building: PPN & Directory – Neil Saul; Health Systems – Emma Cardeli; Law Enforcement – Richard Aborn; Judicial Process – Judge Ann Claire Williams (Ret.); Peer Mentors – Katharina Meredith; Protecting the Protectors – Jillian Hunchak

Special Projects: Survivors in Action – Dawn Collins; Voices of Survivors of Modern Day Hate – Cynthia Deitle; Financial sector – Hans-Jakob Schindler; Video Games – Jacob Davey; Sports – Michele Rosenthal

10:50 AM – 11:20 AM (ET)

Coffee & Networking Break

11:00 AM – 12:00 PM (ET)

DHS CP3 Grantee Reception

Rooms #404 / 405

11:20 AM – 12:00 PM (ET)

Investing in Survivor Narrative: Building a Sustainable Speakers Forum

This plenary will be an opportunity to learn more about why firsthand survivor narratives can change hearts and minds through deep empathy and vicarious resilience.

- Ranisa Davidson, Program Manager, 10.27 Healing Partnership
- Amy Mallinger, Co-Founder, REACH (Remember Educate And Combate Hate)
- Maggie Feinstein, Executive Director, 10.27 Healing Partnership
- Nick Haberman, Founder, LIGHT Education Initiative; Social Studies Teacher, Pittsburgh, PA

12:00 PM – 12:15 PM (ET)

Keynote: Dr. Elizabeth Sherwood-Randall, Homeland Security Advisor, White House

12:15 PM – 1:00 PM (ET)

Lunch

1:00 PM – 2:00 PM (ET)

Reducing the Risk of Political Violence

As many countries across the globe take to election polls in 2024, this panel will bring together a diverse array of experts on reducing political violence. Drawing from their specific areas of expertise, panelists will illuminate the current threat landscape for political violence around the world. They will share concrete strategies for mitigation, both in the near term and into the future.

- Kristina Wilfore, Director of Global Projects and Innovation, Reset Tech; Co-founder, #ShePersisted
- Shannon Hiller, Executive Director, Bridging Divides Initiative (BDI) at Princeton University
- Mary McCord, Visiting Professor of Law and Executive Director, Institute for Constitutional Advocacy and Protection (ICAP), Georgetown University Law Center
- Shamil Idriss, Chief Executive Officer, Search for Common Ground

1:00 PM – 2:00 PM (ET)

Working Group Breakouts

	Room #s
1. Law Enforcement	315 /316
2. Higher Education	404 /405
3. Health Systems – Continuing Education	301 / 302
4. Protecting the Protectors	303
5. Judicial Process	317 / 318
6. Reintegration and Recidivism Reduction	309
7. Sports (closed session)	304 /305

2:00 PM – 2:20 PM (ET)

Keynote: Tara Levine, President, Foundation to Combat Antisemitism

2:20 PM – 2:50 PM (ET)

Coffee & Networking Break

2:50 PM – 3:50 PM (ET)

Treating Violence Like a Disease

The Public Health Model draws from diverse sectors including health, education, social services, justice, policy, and the private sector to develop effective approaches to prevent violence. This panel will discuss how we can adapt this model to prevent hate-fueled violence.

- Dr. Elena Savoia, Principal Scientist, Harvard T.H. Chan School of Public Health; Founder, Community Safety Evaluation Lab
- William Braniff, Director, DHS Center for Prevention Programs and Partnerships
- Dr. Heidi Ellis, Director, Boston Children’s Hospital Trauma and Community Resilience Center (TCRC); Associate Professor of Psychology, Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences, Harvard Medical School
- Dr. John “Jack” Rozel MD, MSL, DFAPA, Professor of Psychiatry & Law, University of Pittsburgh; Medical Director, Resolve Crisis Services, UPMC

2:50 PM – 3:50 PM (ET)

Working Group Breakouts

Room #s

- | | |
|--|-----------|
| 1. State Solutions to Violence Prevention (closed session) | 317 / 318 |
| 2. K-12 Education | 303 |
| 3. Activating the Financial Sector | 309 |
| 4. Youth Red Flags | 303 |
| 5. Video Games (closed session) (2:00 – 3:00 PM) | off-site |
| 6. Peer Mentors | 321 |
| 7. System of Systems | 311 |

4:00 PM – 5:00 PM (ET)

Crafting Caring Conversations in Conflict

The attack on Israel on October 7, 2023, and the subsequent war in Gaza has triggered fears and deeply held beliefs among individuals around the world, particularly those of Jewish, Arab, and Muslim heritage. This moderated conversation will provide a model for how people with steadfast convictions maintain empathy and respect while navigating conflict.

- Venerable Dr. Barry Kerzin, Founder & President, Altruism in Medicine Institute, Founder & Chairman, Human Values Institute
- Dr. Matthew Levitt, Senior Fellow & Director of the Counterterrorism Program, The Washington Institute for Near East Policy; Adjunct Professor, Georgetown University
- Jasmine El-Gamal, Founder & CEO, Mindwork Strategies

5:00 PM - 6:30 PM (ET)

Reception

Tuesday, October 22, 2024

9:00 AM – 9:10 AM (ET)

Keynote: Major Garrett, Chief Washington Correspondent, CBS News

9:10 AM – 9:55 AM (ET)

Students Defusing Hate on Campus

Since the Hamas terror attack on October 7th and fueled by subsequent political and military actions in the Middle East, U.S. college campuses have seen a surge in disruptive protests and incidents of hate. Understanding the complex causes behind this rise in campus violence could fill an entire conference. This session will focus on one proven approach to preventing and reducing campus violence: student-led coexistence interventions. The panel will feature experts in campus conflict mediation and students who have implemented successful initiatives. Grounded in empirical research, participants will leave equipped with actionable strategies to foster student-led solutions to campus hate.

- Cindy Shapira, President, The Shapira Foundation
- Daphne Felten-Green, Founder and President, DSFG Solutions, LLC
- Aarinii Parms-Green, Eradicate Hate Global Summit Programming Intern, Xavier University of Louisiana
- Dylan Mann, Student, Tulane University

9:55 AM – 10:25 AM (ET)

Coffee & Networking Break

Forest Bathing

South Terrace

10:25 AM – 11:10 AM (ET)

Helping People Help Themselves

How do you reach the individuals at greatest risk of violence and persuade them to consider alternatives? How do you convince a friend or loved one to seek help when they are concerned about getting people they care for in trouble? This discussion features innovative campaigns to reach those in need and successfully connect them with supportive services.

- Rachel Hunkler, Director of Programs and Evaluation, Eradicate Hate Global Summit
- Dr. Shannon Poe, Director of Exit Programming and Services, Life After Hate
- Alexander Sievers, Senior Practitioner P/CVE, Violence Prevention Network
- Kaitlyn Tierney, CEO & Co-Founder, Diverting Hate

11:10 AM – 11:45 AM (ET)

Tool Time

This series of five-minute Ignite Talks will feature tangible products and tools you can implement to reduce hate-fueled violence within your community.

1. Community Resilience Early Warning System, Muflehun
2. Secure Community Network
3. Let's Talk to Them
4. U.S. Online Domestic Violent Extremism Monitor, Institute for Strategic Dialogue
5. Building Resilience & Confronting Risk, Polarization & Extremism Research & Innovation Lab

11:45 AM – 12:00 PM (ET)

Keynote: Gabrielle Giffords, Co-Founder, Giffords

12:00 PM – 1:00 PM (ET)

Networking Lunch

1:00 PM – 2:00 PM (ET)

Breakouts

Room #s

Daily Defenders: The Unsung Roles in Preventing Hate

301 /302

This breakout will explore the unsung roles played by insider threat centers, basketball coaches, mediators, podcasters and subject matter experts, in preventing hate. Panelists will offer a comprehensive, multi-perspective discussion on the daily responsibilities of professionals in preventing hate-based incidents in diverse environments.

- Humera Khan, President & Co-Founder, Muflehun
- Dr. Jonathan W. Roginski, Assistant Professor, United States Military Academy (West Point); Program Manager, West Point Insider Threat
- Shaun Ali, Senior Justice Technical Assistance Specialist, WestEd
- Randy Duque, Deputy Director, Philadelphia Commission on Human Relations
- Adnan Ansari, Co-Founder, Executive Director, Muflehun

Safeguarding Against Online Harm

Auditorium / 406

Violent attackers often find inspiration, like-minded individuals, and tactical planning support online. Content-moderation alone can feel like a never-ending game of whack-a-mole. This panel will discuss the latest innovations to safeguard users from online harms.

- Laura Ellsworth, Board Co-Founder, Eradicate Hate Global Summit
- Sammie Wicks, Interventions Manager, Moonshot
- Dina Hussein, Global Head, Policy Development & Expert Partnerships – Counterterrorism & Dangerous Orgs Policy, Meta
- Luc Bernard, Director, The Light in the Darkness

State Solutions to Violence Prevention (closed session)

317 / 318

Resourcing the Field: Igniting Philanthropic Investment

Plenary Stage

Leaders from prominent philanthropic institutions will discuss the role of philanthropy in reducing hate-fueled violence. The conversation will identify successful grant-seeking strategies, share current philanthropic program investments, and forecast a 2025 investment outlook.

- Ryan Greer, President, Bedrock
- Ben Chou, Program Officer, David and Lucile Packard Foundation
- Brad Rourke, Chief External Affairs Officer, Charles F. Kettering Foundation
- Carla Bernal, Women's Political Power Program Strategy Manager, Pivotal Ventures

Reporting, Investigating, and Prosecuting on Hate

304 / 305

Today's domestic terrorism threat poses a danger to Americans, our democratic society, and our national security that we must counter aggressively, comprehensively, and responsibly. This panel will discuss the composition and function of the newly created Domestic Terrorism Unit, showcase select domestic violent extremism-related cases, underscore the necessity of close collaboration with state/local and civic partners and point to available resources for the local community to best address domestic violent extremism within their respective communities.

- Thomas E. Brzozowski, Counsel for Domestic Terrorism, National Security Division, U.S. Department of Justice
- Justin Sher, Trial Attorney, U.S. Department of Justice
- Mary J. Hahn, Trial Attorney, U.S. Department of Justice
- Justin Van Tromp, Special Agent, U.S. Federal Bureau of Investigation
- Derika Sutton, Hate Crime Data Collection Program Owner, U.S. Federal Bureau of Investigation
- Jacquelyn Mettee, Survey Statistician, FBI's Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) Program

2:00 PM – 3:00 PM (ET)

Breakouts

Room #s

Funders Discussion (closed session)

311

The Cure for Hate – Film Screening and Discussion

Auditorium / 406

The Cure for Hate is Tony McAleer's personal journey of atonement to Auschwitz, exploring how issues around cultural polarization and othering contributed to the rise of Nazi Germany, and how those same issues echo today. This panel, composed of McAleer and diverse faith leaders, will address how cooperative interfaith partnerships can be forged to stem the tide of hate and intolerance and how The Cure for Hate Impact Program has affected their own communities.

- Peter Hutchison, Filmmaker & Impact Producer, The Cure for Hate Films
- Tony McAleer, Author, The Cure For Hate – Bearing Witness To Auschwitz

- Rabbi Beth Jacowitz Chottiner, Temple Shalom
- Tariq Tyab, Co-Founder, Foundation for a Path Forward

State-Led Efforts to Build Community Trust & Prevent Bias

301 / 302

This panel will explore states that have made strides in building relationships with community partners, promoting community education, and bias prevention. State representatives will discuss their strategies for raising awareness and conflict de-escalation through accessible and culturally sensitive community engagement.

- Pati Kickland, Program Manager, Hawaii State Fusion Center
- Trish Perlmutter, Program Manager, Hawaii State Fusion Center
- Patricia Williamson, Deputy Director of Community Programming, Community Relations Unit, New Jersey Division on Civil Rights
- Ariana Ba, Civil Rights Coordinator, Rhode Island Office of the Attorney General
- Jennifer Stevens, Coordinator, Rhode Island Commission on Prejudice and Bias

Measuring What Matters: The Case for Common Metrics

304 / 305

In an interdisciplinary and nascent field, prevention takes many forms and can be measured in myriad ways. This panel will discuss international efforts to standardize data and metrics across areas of prevention to grow the evidence and support for effective programs.

- Sarah Cook, Director, Security and Extremism Research Program, RTI International
- Mark Kamlet, University Professor Of Economics And Public Policy; Provost Emeritus, Carnegie Mellon University; Co-Director, Collaboratory Against Hate
- Brett Kubicek, Manager Research, Canada Centre for Community Engagement and Prevention of Violence, Public Safety Canada
- Ajmal Aziz, International Program Analyst, U.S. Department of Homeland Security, Science & Technology Directorate

Combining the Grassroots Power of Targeted Communities

315 / 316

This panel will explore strategies employed by diverse community organizations in addressing hate-fueled violence targeting their own communities. By leveraging their expertise and experiences, we can demonstrate how to work together across differences and showcase the combined grassroots power of targeted communities.

- Ryan Greer, President, Bedrock
- Andy Kang, National Director of Anti-Hate, The Asian American Foundation
- Maya Berry, Executive Director, Arab American Institute
- Rucha Kaur, Managing Director of Education & Community Development, The Sikh Coalition

Confronting the Dark Corners of the Internet on 764

317 / 318

This panel will explore solutions to track, confront, and prosecute members of the predatory group 764, which lures children online into exploitation, self-harm, and, unfortunately, even suicide. This violent group requires tech, law enforcement, and public awareness to systematically address this challenge.

- Justin Herdman, Partner, Jones Day

- Robert Schupansky, Assistant United States Attorney, United States Attorney's Office, Western District of Pennsylvania
- Marc-Andre Argentino, Senior Research Advisor, Public Safety Canada
- Madisyn Moore, Staff Operations Specialist, FBI
- Kathryn Rifenbark, Director, CyberTipline, National Center for Missing & Exploited Children
- Lauren Scott, Special Agent, FBI
- Ivan Torres, Special Agent, The Federal Bureau of Investigation
- Nick Satwicz, Special Agent, FBI

3:00 PM – 3:30 PM (ET)

Coffee & Networking Break

3:30 PM – 4:15 PM (ET)

Success Stories: Keeping Communities Safe

We all live, work, worship, and play in different communities throughout our lives. This conversation will highlight successful community-level violence prevention initiatives around the world.

- Dr. Matt Talbot, Senior Threat Manager, Kroger, Co.
- Jackie Bray, Commissioner, NYS Division of Homeland Security and Emergency Services
- Robert Demarzo, Lieutenant, Palm Beach County Sheriff's Office
- Jeffrey Cohen, Immediate Past President, Congregation Beth Israel - Colleyville, Texas; Secure Community Networks

4:15 PM – 5:00 PM (ET)

Success Stories: Reducing Individual Risk

Every day, practitioners provide direct services to individuals contemplating acts of extreme violence. This panel features interventions that have led clients from crisis to stabilization and success.

- Professor John Horgan, Distinguished University Professor, Georgia State University; Director, Violent Extremism Research Group
- David O'Brien, Director of Infant, Child and Youth Mental Health, Yorktown Family Services
- Emma Cardeli, Ph.D, Attending Psychologist & Research Associate, Trauma & Community Resilience Center, Boston Children's Hospital; Instructor of Psychology, Harvard Medical School
- Youcef Naimi, CEAPIRE

5:00 PM - 6:00 PM (ET)

Reception

Wednesday, October 23, 2024

9:00 AM – 9:10 AM (ET)

Opening Remarks

9:10 AM – 9:30 AM (ET)

Award Presentation

9:30 AM – 10:30 AM (ET)

When It Hits Close to Home: Parent and Child Perspectives on Reducing Risk of Violence

- Dr. Matt Talbot, Senior Threat Manager, Kroger, Co.
- Chin Rodger, Mother of Deceased

10:30 AM – 11:00 AM (ET)

Coffee & Networking Break

11:00 AM – 12:00 PM (ET)

Breakouts

Room #s

Building the Prevention Community of the Future: Recommendations from Practitioners

404 / 405

This session invites prevention practitioners to collaboratively discuss how to implement recommendations on improving the field of TVTP practice. Attendees will discuss practitioner recommendations for what they want the future of TVTP to look like that were collected at the 2024 Center for Prevention Programs and Partnerships Grantee Symposium. This session will focus on turning those good ideas into action and steps that each organization and practitioner can take to make that future a reality.

- Hala Furst, Associate Director of Strategic Engagement and Policy Implementation, U.S. Department of Homeland Security / Center for Prevention Programs and Partnerships (CP3)
- William Braniff, Director, DHS Center for Prevention Programs and Partnerships
- David O'Leary, Associate Director of Grants and Innovation, U.S. Department of Homeland Security / Center for Prevention Programs and Partnerships (CP3)
- Jenny Presswalla, Deputy Director of Service Delivery, U.S. Department of Homeland Security / Center for Prevention Programs and Partnerships (CP3)
- Kareem Shora, Deputy Director of Research and Strategy, U.S. Department of Homeland Security / Center for Prevention Programs and Partnerships (CP3)

- Susan Szmania, Associate Director of Research and Content Development, U.S. Department of Homeland Security / Center for Prevention Programs and Partnerships (CP3)

Advancing Rule of Law Solutions in the Fight Against Hate-Fueled Violence

Auditorium / 406

The last year has seen significant evolution in how rule of law solutions impacts the landscape of hate-fueled violence. This panel of experts addresses these important developments and lays out a plan for expansion of these efforts over the year to come.

- Justin Herdman, Partner, Jones Day
- John Quinn, Partner, Hecker Fink LLP
- Daniel J. Kramer, Partner, Paul Weiss Center to Combat Hate
- James Pasch, Senior Director of National Litigation, Anti-Defamation League
- Soo Song, First Assistant U.S. Attorney, Western District of Pennsylvania

Taking Effective Awareness Campaigns to Scale

301 / 302

What should a widescale strategic communications effort for targeted violence and terrorism prevention look like? Who should lead? What non-government resources exist? How can we leverage lessons learned from previous awareness campaigns such as the Blue Square Campaign or other impactful awareness campaigns?

- Rachel Hunkler, Director of Programs and Evaluation, Eradicate Hate
- George Weiss, Founding Director / CEO, Radio La Benevolencija Humanitarian Tools Foundation (RLB)
- Jordy Nijenhuis, Director, Dare to be Grey
- Matthew Berger, President & CEO, Mashber Strategies

Prevention Workstreams

304 / 305

The panel will explore Meta's use of the redirect method to combat the spread of extremism and hate by redirecting users to credible sources of information. The discussion will delve into the rationale behind the redirect method, its application in countering far-right extremism and Holocaust denial, and the metrics used to measure the program's effectiveness.

- Dr. Nawab Osman, Global Head of Prevention, Dangerous Organizations, and Individuals Policy, Meta
- Yfat Barak-Cheney, Executive Director, World Jewish Congress Institute for Technology & Human Rights
- Patrick Riccards, Executive Director & CEO, Life After Hate
- Jonathan Russell, International Director, Violence Prevention Network
- Prashant Waikar, Public Policy Associate Manager, Meta

From Tragedy to Transformation: Shaping Responsible Media Coverage

315 / 316

Media coverage of targeted violence and mass casualty events can cause negative consequences for victims, survivors, and even providers. This discussion will identify norms for responsible coverage of targeted violence and terrorism.

- Trisha Kilpin, Executive Director, Wisconsin Department of Justice, Office of School Safety

- Dr. Andrew Conte, Director, Center for Media Innovation, Point Park University

12:00 PM – 1:00 PM (ET)

Survey and Lunch

12:00 PM – 1:00 PM (ET)

Meta Stakeholder Engagement (closed session) Room #311

1:00 PM – 2:00 PM (ET)

Individual Sector Breakouts

Room #s

Education

404 / 405

- Rachel Hunkler, Director of Programs & Evaluation, Eradicate Hate
- Kathlyn Elliott, Postdoctoral Research Fellow, Boston Children's Hospital Trauma and Community Resilience Center
- Nick Haberman, Founder, LIGHT Education Initiative; Social Studies Teacher, Pittsburgh, PA
- Kimberlyn Moffet, Director of Program & Training, Community Matters

Tech

303

- Skip Gilmour, Director of Technology, Global Internet Forum to Counter Terrorism, GIFCT
- Dina Hussein, Global Head, Policy Development & Expert Partnerships – Counterterrorism & Dangerous Orgs Policy, Meta

Law Enforcement

317 / 318

- Richard Aborn, President, Citizens Crime Commission of New York City

Mental Health

309

- Dr. Heidi Ellis, Director, Boston Children's Hospital Trauma and Community Resilience Center (TCRC); Associate Professor of Psychology, Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences, Harvard Medical School
- Sara Winegar Budge, Psy.D, Director of Programs, Moonshot

Faith in Action

304 / 305

The working session will include facilitated discussions, small-group activities, and interactive exercises, allowing participants to explore the intersection of faith and activism, share personal experiences, and identify actionable steps for mobilizing faith communities to combat hate and promote social justice.

- Wendell Shelby-Wallace, Associate Director, The Philos Project
- Sara Winegar Budge, Psy.D, Director of Programs, Moonshot
- Venerable Dr. Barry Kerzin, Founder & President, Altruism in Medicine Institute, Founder & Chairman, Human Values Institute
- Rabbi Hindy Finman, Director of the Center for Loving Kindness, Jewish Community Center of Greater Pittsburgh (JCCPGH)
- Rev. Liddy Barlow, Executive Minister Christian Associates of Southwest Pennsylvania
- Som Sharma, Founder & President, AHINSA

- Ahmed Shaheed, Professor, School of Law, University of Essex
- Michael Ramos, Member, Voices / United Religions Initiative; President & CEO, United Way of Tompkins County

Veterans

319

- Ellen Gustafson, Co-Founder & Co-Executive Director, We the Veterans

Forming a Public Interest Lawyers' Network Against Hate

315 / 316

Lawyers in this field are deeply committed to making communities healthier, safer, and better places to live. Many of them handle clients who are petitioning for protection from abuse or struggling to remain housed while coping with health crises. Others work to understand what it means to be compassionate advocates while prosecuting and defending in criminal cases. They all want a future where the system of ordered consequences aren't so cold, uncaring, arbitrary, and unjust.

- M.K. Swartsfager, Law Student, Duquesne University School of Law, Kline School of Law
- Justin Herdman, Partner, Jones Day
- John Quinn, Partner, Hecker Fink LLP
- James T. Kitchen, Partner, Jones Day
- Daniel J. Kramer, Partner, Paul Weiss Center to Combat Hate
- Timothy Lewis, Treasurer, Eradicate Hate Global Summit; Senior Counsel, Blank Rome
- Beth Littrell, Southern Poverty Law Center (SPLC)
- James Pasch, Senior Director of National Litigation, Anti-Defamation League
- Jay N. Silberblatt Esq., Partner, Silberblatt Mermelstein, President, Pennsylvania Bar Association
- Soo Song, First Assistant U.S. Attorney, Western District of Pennsylvania
- Judge Ann Claire Williams (Ret.), Of Counsel, Jones Day

Probation and Rehabilitation

311

- Jonathan Russell, International Director, Violence Prevention Network
- Dr. Julie Chernov Hwang, Associate Professor of Political Science and International Relations, Goucher College; Senior Research Fellow, Soufan Center
- David Danko, Supervisory U.S. Probation Officer, U.S. Courts

Government

301 / 302

- William Braniff, Director, DHS Center for Prevention Programs and Partnerships
- John Picarelli Ph.D, Director for Targeted Violence and Terrorism Prevention, National Security Council

Video Games

320

- Galen Lamphere-Englund, Principal, Englund Consulting; Co-Founder & Convener, Extremism and Gaming Research Network (EGRN)
- Luc Bernard, Director, The Light in the Darkness
- Jacob Davey, Director of Policy & Research, Institute for Strategic Dialogue

2:00 PM – 3:00 PM (ET)

Cross-Sector Collaboration Breakouts

Room #s

Establishing Core Competencies in Behavioral Threat Assessment and Management

301 / 302

This breakout will focus on operationalizing behavioral threat assessment and management teams - from risk and threat assessments through case stabilization and management. This discussion will feature local models that can be adapted and adopted in other contexts to standardize and support practitioner collaboration.

- Bruno S. Dias PhD, CTM, Associate Director for Field Operations - Central Region, Department of Homeland Security - CP3
- Dr. Matt Talbot, Senior Threat Manager, Kroger, Co.
- Bjørn Ihler, Co-Founder and Director, Khalifa Ihler Institute; Founder and CEO, Revontulet
- Darren Balsom, Threat Assessment Specialist, Calgary Police Service; Past President, Canadian Association of Threat Assessment Professionals
- Rebecca Bywater, Director of Threat Assessment, Penn State University

Public Health Approaches for Composite Extremism

304 / 305

This session will draw on experts to address how public health approaches can ethically and effectively manage cases of mixed ideology.

- Sammie Wicks, Interventions Manager, Moonshot
- David O'Brien, Director of Mental Health, Yorktown Family Services
- Eric Patterson, Special Agent | CATO Program Coordinator | Threat Management Coordinator, FBI - Philadelphia
- Saed Deryck Hill Ph.D., Counseling Psychologist, Expansive Masculinities Consulting
- Alexander Sievers, Senior Practitioner P/CVE, Violence Prevention Network

Follow the Money: Disrupting Hate Financing

Auditorium / 406

A detailed understanding of who is financing hate-fueled violence around the world—whether they be individuals or state-sponsored actors—is critical to identifying strategies to disrupt it. This panel of experts will provide case studies in which identification of the funders provided critical information that led to the effective prevention and disruption of hate fueled violence.

- Dr. Hans-Jakob Schindler, Senior Director, Counter Extremism Project
- Mark Dwyer, Extremism Funding Investigator, Anti-Defamation League (ADL)
- Alexander Ritzmann, Senior Advisor, Counter Extremism Project

3:00 PM – 3:30 PM (ET)

Coffee & Networking Break

3:30 PM – 4:15 PM (ET)

Bringing Together Communities Confronted by Diverse Faces of Hate: The Community Relations Service Approach

The Community Relations Service serves communities, advocacy groups, and government agencies that are affected by hate crimes and incidents, bias-driven disputes, threats to places of worship, and other situations that divide communities. This breakout will draw on CRS's insights and lessons on addressing the diverse faces of hate and bias, highlighting their tailored approaches for peacemaking and conflict resolution before, during, and after incidents of violence.

- Julius J. Nam, Assistant United States Attorney, Public Corruption & Civil Rights Section, U.S. Attorney's Office for the Central District of California
- Rosa Salamanca, Regional Director, Mountain Central Region, Community Relations Service, U.S. Department of Justice
- Charles E. Phillips, Regional Director, Atlantic North Region, Community Relations Service, U.S. Department of Justice
- D. Paul Monteiro, Jr., Secretary, Maryland Department of Service & Civic Innovation
- Becky L. Monroe, Former Deputy Director, California vs. Hate Resource Line and Network
- Carl Smallwood, Director, Divided Community Project, Ohio State University

4:15 PM – 4:45 PM (ET)

Protecting the Protectors

Professionals working on the front lines to prevent hate-fueled violence play a vital role in keeping our communities safe. However, this important work often exposes them to unique challenges that can impact both their safety and mental well-being. This panel will share promising practices to protect the protectors.

- Kamil Ahmed, Community Mediation, Sulah, Workplaces & Training Coordinator, Imagine a Just Community
- Robert Mundy, Social Worker, Maryland Department of Mental Health
- Michael Becker, Doctoral Candidate, American University
- Jillian Hunchak, Research Analyst, Public Safety Canada
- Becky L. Monroe, Former Deputy Director, California vs. Hate Resource Line and Network
- Carl Smallwood, Director, Divided Community Project, Ohio State University

4:45 PM – 5:00 PM (ET)

Closing Remarks and Survey

